DADDY DELI

Our Story

In 2020, during the uncertainty of lockdown, Peter Hagstedt found himself out of work and focused on providing for his 3-year-old son, Vincent.

With a lifelong passion for cooking, he set out to create a restaurant offering real quality at honest prices—somewhere families like his could enjoy great food in a warm, welcoming space.

From that vision, Daddy Deli was born. Five years later, it's grown into a four-branch restaurant group across two cities—built not just on food, but on turning tough times into opportunity and creating a lasting legacy for those you love.
